

EXHIBIT 10

----- Original message -----

From: Celene Domitrovich <celenedomitrovich@gmail.com>

Date: 2/22/19 11:24 PM (GMT-05:00)

To: Jason Niles <JNiles@channing-bete.com>

Subject: PATHS sale to [REDACTED]

Dear Jason,

I am replying to your letter from January 22, 2019 notifying me that Channing-Bete is selling the PATHS Program to [REDACTED]. Your letter did not ask for my consent and this concerns me because the agreement I signed with CBC in 2004 states that "This Agreement may be assigned by Licensee pursuant to a merger or a sale of all or substantially all of Licensee's capital stock, assets or business." Is CBC selling all of its capital stock, assets, or business to [REDACTED]? Could you please clarify what is happening?

As you may know, I have worked closely with PATHS Education Worldwide (PEW) and think highly of the organization so I believe it should be allowed to continue its good work no matter who inherits the PATHS program. PEW has made a substantial contribution to sales of PATHS and this directly affects my royalties. If the sale is not one for all of CBC's stock, assets, or business, then at this point I have not consented to this assignment, and I may withhold such consent until I am assured that PEW has an agreement with [REDACTED] to protect PEW's rights going forward.

Thank you for your consideration,

Celene Domitrovich